1. My name is Eboni Essence Alston. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of Cobb County in Georgia and my residence address is [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] POWDER SPRINGS, GA, [REDACTED]
3. For the 2018 Georgia General Election, I was forced to cast a provisional ballot instead of a regular ballot at the polling place for my registered address.
 - a. I changed my voter registration in September 2018 to my current residence address, and verified this change on the Georgia Secretary of State's "My Voter" page.
 - b. My polling location is listed as 'FAITH BAPTIST TEMPLE-CL02, 5083 HIRAM LITHIA SPRINGS RD, POWDER SPRINGS, GA, 30127.'
 - c. On Election Day, November 6, 2018, I showed up to vote at the Faith Baptist Temple around 6 PM. After waiting around 50 minutes, my driver's license was scanned and I was informed by a poll worker that I was not registered at my current address. Instead I was still registered at my previous address.

- d. I tried to show the poll workers on my phone that I was indeed registered at Faith Baptist Temple, to no avail.
 - e. I was prevented from casting a regular ballot at the Faith Baptist Temple. Instead, I was forced to cast a provisional ballot.
4. I give this Declaration freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
 5. I understand that in giving this Declaration, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.

1. My name is James Baiye. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of Gwinnett County in Georgia and my residence address is [REDACTED], Stone Mountain, Georgia [REDACTED]
3. On November 6, 2018, I was not permitted to vote using a voter machine and was not offered a provisional ballot. I was told that, because I had not voted in the two previous general election cycles that I was not properly registered to vote. However, this is not true. I voted by absentee ballot in the 2012 general election cycle, and by direct vote in 2016. I feel like I have been denied my right to vote.
4. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
5. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.

1. My name is Antione Brown. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of Dekalb County in Georgia and my residence address is ████████████████████, Decatur, GA ██████████
3. My polling location is the New Life Baptist Church on Candler Road in DeKalb. I have voted since 2008 at this location
4. For the 2018 Georgia General Election, I was forced to vote as a “supplemental voter” instead of casting a regular ballot, through no fault of my own, because my voter registration number was assigned to someone else.
 - a. On Election Day, November 6, 2018, I showed up to vote at New Life Baptist Church.
 - b. When I checked in, the poll worker said that my name was not in the system and they could not find me. They offered me a provisional ballot but I did not want to do this because I knew I was a registered voter.
 - c. They told me that I had to go to Memorial Drive and bring my voter registration card.

- d. Luckily I had my voter registration so I went to the Memorial Drive location. Using my voter registration number, they found out that they had assigned my voter registration number to someone in Fulton County.
 - e. It was almost as if I had never been registered to vote. They wouldn't have been able to figure this out if I hadn't happened to have my voter registration card on me.
 - f. The person at Memorial Drive had to re-add me as a "Supplemental voter". They wrote my name down on a piece of paper and said that they would add later on as a "numbered voter". I voted using the machine and the card with the piece of paper with my name on it attached to it.
 - g. The person at Memorial Drive said this mistake was caused by human error and this happens all the time.
 - h. I have never lived in Fulton County. All my documents have always been at one address in DeKalb, and I did nothing to change my voter registration. But it changed anyway.
- 5. I give this Declaration freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

6. I understand that in giving this Declaration, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.
7. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

- DJB*
1. I am Deborah ^{Gaventa} Brown. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
 2. I reside at [REDACTED] Atlanta, GA [REDACTED]
 3. I served as an Express Poll Clerk for the November 6, 2018 election.
 4. I was assigned to the Coralwood Precinct in Dekalb County.
 5. As an Express Poll Clerk, one of my duties is to request and receive voter identification from voters, scan that identification, and provide voters with the card for them to use in the voting machines.
 6. At some point during the day a couple came to the precinct to vote.
 7. The female provided her identification first, which of course, had her address. The scan of the address showed her to be at the proper precinct for voting.
 8. The man then provided his identification which contained the exact same address as the woman who had just voted.
 9. The scan of his address showed him that he was to vote at a different precinct.
 10. I provided him a provisional ballot rather than sending him to a different precinct.
 11. The fact that this couple, with the same address, had different voting precincts caused me concern over the integrity of the voting records and whether there had been tampering with the records.

12. I give this Declaration freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
13. I understand that in giving this Declaration, I am not represented by a lawyer, nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway other than as a witness in this litigation.
14. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746
AND/OR
SWORN STATEMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH GEORGIA LAW

1. My name is Kia Marlene Carter. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of Henry County and my address is [REDACTED], McDonough, GA, [REDACTED]
3. My polling location is Precinct 49, SHILOH EDUCATION CENTER
253 MACON STREET, MCDONOUGH, GA, 30253.
4. My individual circumstances are the following:
 - a. On Election Day, I went to the Voter Registration building to vote. I arrived at approximately 6:30 p.m. because I had to go pick-up my child at daycare first. I was told by the employees at the voter registration building this is where I could go for Early Voting, but not Election Day.
 - b. The employee at the voter registration office offered to use my ID to pull the location where I should vote. He told me to go to the Shyla Early Education Center. The GPS told me that the place didn't exist but I happened to see the signs on the road that said where to go to vote. I arrived at the Shyla Education Center at approximately 6:45 p.m.

- c. I filled out the card as directed by the poll worker. She said to fill out the highlighted section (on the left) but not the right. I clarified whether I needed to provide my address (on the right side of the card) and the poll worker said, "Oh I forgot to ask for that!" I then went to the next table where I gave a different poll worker the the white card I filled out along with my ID.
- d. The poll worker scanned my ID and she said: "I've never seen this before." She told me, "It says you are not a US Citizen."
- e. I was born in Virginia and have voted in Georgia since I was 18 years old. I am 36. This has never happened to me before. The last time I voted was in 2012.
- f. The poll worker called over another poll worker to look at what she was seeing on the screen. He had never seen it before, either. He made a phone call to the voter registration building. I know this because, later, when I went there, the woman recognized me and addressed me as Ms. Carter.
- g. I offered the poll workers my ID and said that I had my social security card with me. The poll worker at the table thought that the Social Security card should work and then again spoke with the other poll worker. The other poll worker said, “that just has numbers on it, it won’t work.”

- h. I offered to get my birth certificate from home, though I wasn’t sure I could make it home and back in time. I’m fairly new to Henry County. The other poll worker said to go back to the voter registration office again and added, “I’m surprised they didn’t catch this when you were there earlier”.
 - i. I went back to the voter registration office. The employee used the information off my driver’s license and the last four digits of my Social Security Number. She then told me I needed to get this issue fixed before next election. It was exactly 7 p.m. when I left the voter registration office.
 - j. I was shocked and I didn’t even know where to begin to fix this to prove that I’m a citizen. I was not able to vote. Nobody offered me a provisional ballot and I do not know anything about provisional ballots.
5. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

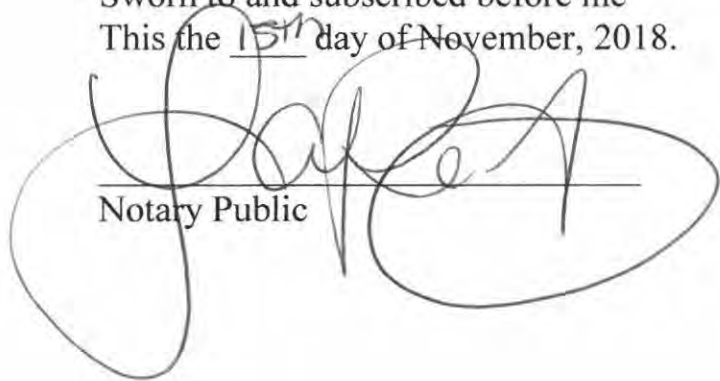

6. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.
7. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

- d. When the poll worker looked up my information, the only person who came up was Alexis Danjiel Clark, which is not my middle name. The poll worker told me that if that information was correct for me, then my polling location would be in Locust Grove.
- e. I have never lived in or registered to vote in Locust Grove.
- f. The poll worker told me that I wouldn't be able to vote at all because I wasn't on the rolls.
- g. I waited at my polling location, Grove Park Recreation, for 2 hours trying to determine if I could cast a provisional ballot. At times, the main poll worker would make phone calls and be on hold for nearly 30 minutes at a time trying to ask questions about my registration.
- h. At one point, a male poll worker told me that I could cast a provisional ballot. But another poll worker told me that because I thought I was registered in two precincts, she didn't know which one to save my provisional ballot under.
- i. Throughout the experience, the poll workers did not seem to believe that I had in fact registered to vote previously. The poll workers asked me for my precinct card, which I did not realize I would need to bring with me. They repeatedly asked me questions about where I had voted previously, and I felt that they doubted my story.

- j. By this time, it was after 3 pm, and I had to leave in order to go to class. So I left without being able to cast a vote, provisional or otherwise. When I got home later, I looked up the information on the Secretary of State's My Voter Page website.
- k. If the poll worker was correct in believing that this other Alexis Clark was in Locust Grove, then I knew she would've had the same birthdate and name as me, but would live in Henry County. On that page, I saw that she had registered on April 4, 2018.
- l. So it seemed like the Secretary of State had mixed me up with this other Alexis Clark and somehow written over or deleted my voter registration.
- m. When I tried looking up my name and birthdate in Fulton County, the SOS MVP page showed that my registration was unable to be located. I was confused about how this could have happened because we live in different counties and we would have different social security numbers.
- n. I have called the Fulton County Board of Elections and Office of the Registrar for the last week and a half, but I have not been given any information with very few people returning my repeated voicemails and calls. One time when I called the registrar, their office gave me a direct phone number for someone in voter registration, so I called that person, who never responded to my calls.

- o. After voting in 2016 and 2017, I was disallowed from voting in 2018, through no fault of my own. I am distressed that I was unable to cast my ballot and make my voice heard.
- 5. I give this Declaration freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
- 6. I understand that in giving this Declaration, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.
- 7. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Further affiant sayeth not, this the 20 day of November, 2018.

DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746
AND/OR
SWORN STATEMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH GEORGIA LAW

1. My name is Colleen Corona. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of Fulton County in Georgia and my residence address is [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Atlanta, Georgia.
3. My individual circumstances are the following:
 - a. I have poll watched several times in the past.
 - b. I have also trained poll watchers in the past.
 - c. On November 6, 2018, I was poll watching at Liberty Baptist Church at 395 Chamberlain Street, Southeast in Fulton County Georgia.
 - d. I witnessed a voter, Kinley Davis, stand in line to vote for approximately an hour. When she reached the front of the line, the male friend, who she was with was allowed to vote.
 - e. When Ms. Davis attempted to vote, she was told by the poll worker that she was at the wrong precinct and that she needed to vote at her precinct.
 - f. I observed Ms. Davis say that she was not able to go to the other polling place because she had to go to work. I also observed Ms. Davis request a provisional ballot several times.
 - g. Despite her requests, I observed that Sharon Franklin- Poll Manger tell her that her polling place was close enough and she could go vote.

- h. When Ms. Davis left, I followed her outside away from the polling place, and Ms. Davis told me that she was not given a provisional ballot and that she would try to go to her precinct after her work, but she had to work.
 - i. When I returned back into the polling place, I overheard the poll manager saying that Ms. Davis was “too lazy” to go to her polling place.
 - j. I also observed many students being sent to vote in the provisional ballot line. When one of them got to the provisional ballot line, the poll manager had asked a student “what’s your excuse, why do you need a provisional ballot?” in an antagonistic manner.
 - k. I observed that Ms. Franklin was antagonistic towards several voters.
 - l. At one point she handed me her phone and asked me to speak to the person on the phone. The person identified themselves as an employee of the Secretary of State Office. That person stated that the poll manager informed him I was going outside and telling voters how to vote. I informed the person on the phone that I was not telling voters how to vote, and that I was allowed to leave the building to talk to voters who I had witnessed having issues voting. He stated that I was correct, and I asked him to tell this to the poll manager. The person agreed and informed Ms. Franklin that I was allowed to leave the polling location to speak to voters who had left the polling place.
4. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

AFFIDAVIT OF KELLY M. DERMODY

1. My name is Kelly Dermody. I am over twenty-one years of age and am competent to testify to the matters contained herein. I understand that this affidavit will be offered in connection with litigation brought by Stacey Abrams and the Abrams campaign related to the 2018 General Election.
2. I am a graduate of Harvard University and Berkeley Law School. I was admitted to the practice of law in California in 1994. In addition to being admitted before the state and federal courts in California, I am admitted to the following federal appeals courts: First, Second, Third, Fourth, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Eleventh, and U.S. Supreme Court.
3. I am currently the Managing Partner of the San Francisco office [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. In 2012, I served as the president of the Bar Association of San Francisco. In 2015, the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers named me a Fellow. I have served in leadership roles in the American Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Section ("LELS"), including co-chairing its Equal Employment Opportunity Committee, Diversity in the Legal Profession Committee, and Annual Section Conference. In August 2017, I completed an eight-year term as one of four employee advocates on the ABA LELS Governing Council. In 2017-2018, I served on the American Bar Association Section of Litigation's Attorney Client Privilege Task Force. I am an AV-Preeminent rated attorney, and have received a variety of awards from civic and non-profit organizations for my work. The Daily Journal (California's legal newspaper) has repeatedly named me as a "Top 100 Lawyer in California," a "Top California Women Litigator," and a "Top 75 Labor and Employment Attorney in California."

4. During the 2018 mid-term election, I worked as a Poll Watcher for the Democratic Party. Prior to arriving in Georgia, I participated in the required Poll Watcher Training offered on-line. I previously served as a Poll Watcher in North Carolina during both early and election-day voting for the 2016 Presidential election, as well as in Arizona for earlier elections.
5. On Election Day, November 6, 2018, I served as a Poll Watcher at the D.M. Therrell High School in Fulton County from approximately 6:25 am until about 7:50 pm. This location was inside a large gymnasium of a high school, and contained approximately 17 voting booths. When I arrived, I introduced myself to the Poll Manager. I also introduced myself to other poll workers. I was told the staff that worked that day had worked together before. I explained to the poll workers what I was there for, and I asked to sit near the voter registration. The Poll Manager suggested I sit next to her, but because she was seated across the gym from the stations handling voter data and provisional ballots, I moved across the room several times that day so that I could better see/hear what was happening with voters who experienced problems.

6. With the exception of the Poll Manager (as explained more fully herein), I found the poll workers to be welcoming and professional. The Poll Manager appeared exclusively to handle issues with voters that required a phone call to the Fulton County elections office. This caused a bottleneck throughout the day. Unfortunately, the Poll Manager also did not seem to like her job. She expressed exasperation with the process throughout the day, complained about being tired, often seemed bothered by voters with issues, and exhibited little urgency when assisting voters, who I heard express frustration on multiple occasions with the pace of assistance. The Poll Manager certainly had at least one reason for being flustered all day, as no cell phones (including hers) worked inside the gym and the only way she could communicate with Fulton County was by walking out of the building and calling them from the steps outside. I witnessed multiple voters flustered because they did not think the Poll Manager was doing anything to help them, and I believe a few left without voting because she did not communicate with them. When I saw this happen I tried to follow the voter out of the building to give them feedback about what would happen next if they waited so that the voter would choose to wait for the Poll Manager to get outside (where cell service worked) so she could make a call to get more information for them. This process with the Poll Manager could take 10-30 minutes per person, often with little feedback about what was happening or how long it would take.

7. Throughout the day, I also observed several structural issues that raised concerns.
8. One of the machines for checking in voters malfunctioned before 8:00 am in the morning (the technician said it needed a new card). Fulton County was alerted right away but never sent a new card to get the machine running again. During the morning rush, lack of enough registration machines (Express Polls) caused the back up, so this machine being down impacted the length of the line and may have deterred voters looking at a long line.
9. I also observed a large number of voters who were told they were in the wrong precinct. Many of those said that they had lived in the same location and voted at the same location for many years and could not understand why they were being told to vote elsewhere. I heard this story over and over again. Here are some examples of issues I observed:

a. The poll workers at Therrell were under the impression that there was a “Fulton County rule” that no registered voter could vote provisionally before 5:00 p.m. because, presumably, before 5:00 p.m. that voter could just (i) go to his/her “correct” polling location (even if hours away and even if the voter claimed the assignment was in error and the voter was in the correct place) or (ii) go first to the Fulton County office to fix data issues before returning to Therrell and voting with a regular ballot. I believe several voters were turned away without a provisional ballot because of this misunderstanding, and I am sure some of them did not get to cast a vote. Near 2:00 p.m., I became aware that this specific “rule” was being enforced, when I saw a young woman get rejected by staff and walk out of the building. Outside the building I asked the voter what had happened, and she told me that Therrell is her precinct and she has voted there very recently with no problem, but that somehow the official voter data showed her being registered in another county, which she did not understand. She told me that she is a home healthcare worker, with a live-in client who needed a pick up from the VA where he was being treated for PTSD and dementia, and that she needed to get back to him and couldn’t drive so far away to vote. I told her (while outside the precinct) that she could vote provisionally and I directed her to the Poll Manager. I then observed that a poll worker reject the voter's request to vote provisionally, and the poll worker called to the Poll Manager for confirmation. I explained to the Poll Manager that the voter needed a provisional ballot but was being denied, and the Poll Manager informed me of the "Fulton County 5pm rule." When I advised the Poll Manager that this "rule" was inconsistent with the voter's rights, the Poll Manager told me that she didn't care about "my" rules and told the voter to ignore me because "she is an outsider." While the voter waited with me outside, the Poll Manager called Johnny Harris of the Fulton County Department of Elections to ask him to direct me to leave because she didn't like me raising a concern about the voter not getting to vote. The Poll Manager passed the phone to me, and Mr. Harris started to suggest I leave until I explained the provisional ballot situation to him. Mr. Harris confirmed that there is no Fulton County 5:00 pm rule for provisional ballots and directed that the voter standing with me be allowed to vote provisionally. (The voter finally voted more than an hour after this situation first came to a head.) I do not know how many voters were disenfranchised at Therrell before 2:00 p.m. because of this failure of training and interference with voters, but clearly this was not the first time that day that the "rule" was applied, including in the next example which caused a voter to be prevented from voting. (I did not see this "rule" applied again after I spoke with Mr. Harris around 3:00 p.m., nor was I asked to leave again.) I called the boiler room and submitted an incident report about this Fulton County “rule” through the Voter Protection hotline on November 6, 2018.

b. One voter showed up at 7:10 pm having missed the chance to vote after she had bounced between precincts. She told me she had come to Therrell High School to vote earlier in the day because she is a registered voter who wanted to vote at the precinct at which she has always voted. (She has not moved.) However, the poll workers at Therrell sent her away because, they told her, her address didn’t match her registration and she needed to go vote at her “home” precinct. However, the address to which the poll worker said she was registered is an address for a house the voter sold 5 years ago and hasn’t lived in for over a decade. (And she has voted since then at Therrell High School.) The precinct for that erroneous registration address was at least an hour’s drive away, in West Georgia. The voter was not offered the chance to vote provisionally at Therrell and when she could not make it to West Georgia, she returned to Therrell once again, too late. I submitted an incident report with contact information for this disenfranchised voter on November 6, 2018.

c. I witnessed this personally and a Therrell poll worker confirmed her observation to me that there were multiple issues during the day involving voters who (1) went online and viewed their voting location before coming to Therrell and/or (2) had a recent letter from election officials designating Therrell as their voting location, but who arrived at Therrell only to be turned away because the “official” database reflected that the voter was assigned to a different location. This was a major issue all day, and I logged more than 10 issues like this for individual voters. A poll worker told me that she also had noted that this problem sometimes happened in clusters of addresses, not all of which she could recall, but said that she believed this came up several times for residents with a "Devon" address. The poll worker suspected that the Department of Driver Services may have been at the center of many issues based on what she said voters described as the source of their registrations or address updates. The poll worker who shared this with me sat at the registration table that logged voters into the online system and, at the end of the night, she sat in the chair at the far left end of the table (from her perspective, or far right end/closest to voting booths from a voter’s perspective checking in), where she was also counting the ballots.

d. Similarly, a voter told me that there were registration irregularities for the residents of 2447 Campbellton Road. Some residents continued to be permitted to vote at Therrell, but poll workers sent others from that address to a different precinct even though those residents had voted at Therrell before and even had an October 2018 letter saying Therrell is their precinct. The voter believed this affected at least 4-5 voters and that he could not say that all of them successfully made it to vote at the re-designated precinct. (I logged this voter's information in an incident report on November 6, 2018.)

- 10. Because the poll workers gave changing information throughout the day to voters with registration issues, I believe that some voters in similar situations were treated differently.
- 11. I was not able to stay to the very end of the vote count, which I believe must have happened after 8pm. A poll worker told me near closing that she was concerned that the machines may not have counted all the voters properly, and based on my last logged tallies (at 6pm, 6:40pm, and 7:15pm) and my visual assessment of the number of voters in the room at those times, I concurred that the vote counts did not seem to match. For example, the vote count at 6pm was 1333, at 6:40pm it was 1374, and at 7:15pm it was 1384. I saw more than 10 people enter the building and vote after 6:40, and I did not count but strongly believe that more than 31 voters got registered to vote between my count at 6pm and the count at 6:40pm. I do not know what the official count is for that polling location, which combined more than one precinct. I was told by a poll worker that 29 provisional ballots were cast during the day, and I observed a very high number of provisional ballots at the very end of the day. (I was told that at the last election there were 8 provisional ballots cast.)

12. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
13. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.
14. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

2. I am a resident of Fulton County in Georgia and my residence address is [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Atlanta, Georgia [REDACTED]
3. My individual circumstances are the following: Approximately two weeks prior to the start of early voting, I viewed the Secretary of State's website to confirm that my name and residence address were correct so that I could vote early and without issue. When I attempted to early vote at Northside Drive Library, I was told that my address in the voter registration computer system was different than the address listed on my driver's license. For some reason, the voter registration computer system listed an address from eight years prior. This was concerning to me because I had recently confirmed my name and residence address on the Secretary of State's website prior to attempting to vote. I declined to early vote on this day. I went home and, again, viewed the Secretary of State's website and discovered that someone had changed my address. On election day, I went to my local polling place to vote and was told that I had already voted by absentee ballot using my eight-year old address, which was not true. On election day, I voted using a provisional ballot but never received a piece of paper explaining my rights, including how to correct a deficiency and how to check whether my ballot was counted. I am uncertain whether my vote was ever counted.

4. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
5. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.

3. My polling address is Druid Hills High School - 1798 Haygood Dr., NE
4. My individual circumstances are the following:
 - a. I am a U.S. citizen and was born in New York. Both of my parents and all of my grandparents were also born in the United States. I went to vote on November 6, 2018 at Druid Hills High School, but was told by a poll worker that they could not confirm that I was a U.S. citizen.
 - b. At the time, I had three different forms of ID: my drivers license from Massachusetts, my U.S. passport card and my Emory University ID.
 - c. I was not allowed to vote with a regular ballot. I was forced to vote with a provisional ballot but was not provided with a receipt nor told that I needed to follow up on my ballot. Instead, I was assured that my vote would be counted.
 - d. When I visited the Dekalb county voter registration office at or about 11:50 a.m. on November 9, 2018, as required, the representative first told me she couldn't help me because I didn't have the documents or receipt that I was supposed to have been given when I completed my provisional ballot. I then asked her to check on my citizenship status, and gave her my forms of ID. She took a photocopy of my U.S. passport card and said I was all set. AND/OR

SWORN STATEMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH GEORGIA LAW

1. My name is Shannon Gaggero. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of Fulton County in Georgia and my residence address is [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Atlanta, GA, [REDACTED]
3. On election day, November 6, 2018, I served as a Poll Watcher at the Little 5 Points Community Center in Fulton County from about 8:00 am until 2:00 pm.
4. As a general matter, I found the poll workers to be welcoming and professional. I appreciate how they accommodated voters with visible or expressed challenges. They let those voters go to the head of the line and were quite helpful.
5. I did, however, observe several matters that raised some concerns.
6. For example, the lines in this precinct were quite long. When I arrived in the morning, there was about a two-hour wait to vote. As the morning progressed, the line did lessen but it never dropped below an hour wait time.
7. As a result, I am aware of a number of voters who left. And, while they indicated they would try to return, they indicated that they would have difficulty returning. I saw a number of mothers with young children who had brought their children to expose them to voting. But, some of the children experienced serious “meltdowns.” The moms did leave but committed to return. I do not know whether they did.

8. One of the Express Polls (there were only two at this location) malfunctioned on a number of occasions and had to be unplugged and re-started. That technical problem led to some of the delay.
9. I also observed a number of voters who were told they were in the wrong precinct. Many of those said that they had lived in the same location and voted at the same location for twenty-five years and could not understand why they were being told to vote elsewhere.
10. Another issue I observed related to provisional ballots. One voter who had registered on the October 9 registration deadline was not found in the system. A poll worker said you should never expect to be on the rolls if you registered near or on the deadline. “This,” the poll worker said, “is Georgia.”
11. Other problems that I observed with provisional ballots included people being forced to vote a provisional ballot when their new address was within the same precinct.
12. I believe that all the voters received if they cast a provisional ballot was a simple stub and not an explanation of how to track their ballot. I never overheard any voter being told they had to “cure” their provisional ballots;

instead, they were told, if they asked whether their ballot would count, “Yes, of course it will count.”

13. And, I am aware that, after consulting with the Board of Elections office, the poll workers changed their practices with respect to provisional ballots for changes of address. So, I believe, that some voters in similar situations were treated differently.

14. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

15. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.

16. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

3. My individual circumstances are the following:
 - a. I was assigned to precinct PS3A as a poll watcher on Tuesday November 6, 2018. My shift began at approximately 1:00 p.m. and I was there until they posted the tapes on the door at close at 8:30 p.m.
 - b. The issue I observed was voters who did not show up on the voter rolls based on what the poll workers were finding but I was able to find them on the Secretary of State's My Voter Page (MVP).
 - c. I approached these voters outside the building after they had completed their provisional ballots and found them in MVP as listed at the proper precinct. I believe I had two or three voters with this situation.
 - d. Other provisional ballots cast were by voters who showed up at the incorrect precinct because they moved to the area from elsewhere in Cobb, but had not changed their registration to vote at PS3A.

- e. The other concern I observed was when a mother was going to stand with her adult son while he completed his provisional ballot. The poll workers would have allowed her to do so if his mother had not changed her mind.
4. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

I was given a yellow card and proceeded to vote using the machine. However, my mother was not able to vote. A poll worker claimed that she could not vote at that location because she was assigned to another one. However, my mother and I live at the same residence and registered to vote

PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746

1. My name is Laurretta Guerin. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of the State of Oregon and my residence address is [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Portland, OR [REDACTED]
3. For the 2018 Georgia General Election, I was a poll watcher at the College Park polling station.
 - a. The first issue I observed was voters who were sure they were registered to vote but didn't appear on the rolls.
 - b. Registration for these voters was thoroughly checked on the Express Polling machine and on paper lists of other counties. This happened often, and when all lists at the polling place resulted in no matches, the polling manager worked with the individual voter by calling the Office of Elections and Registration to continue to search for their registration.
 - c. All cases were resolved, mostly, in my observation, with positive identification of registration and the individual was given the okay to vote.
 - d. In some cases, however, it was found that registration was not active. One was a former felon who had not presented his letter of clearance to resume active registration. He knew he still needed to complete a final step before clearing everything to be able to vote again. The polling manager urged him to get his letter and get it cleared.

- e. Another was a woman who had not properly registered after gaining U.S. citizenship. Several people had thought they were registered to vote because of signing up with a voter registration person "on the street" and then receiving what they thought was a confirmation of registration.
- f. I believe that some of these individuals said that they received something in the mail. The polling manager helped each of these individuals by explaining the situation and instructing them on the next steps that they would need to take to complete their registration.
- g. One situation was a young woman who, on her 18th birthday, registered to vote on October 9th, the deadline for registration. After the polling manager called the Office of Elections and Registration, he was told that she was not registered and that her registration would not be valid until the following day, November 7th.
- h. The young woman was accompanied by her mother and was so excited to vote for the first time. It was heartbreaking to see the disappointment for both the mother and daughter.

- i. The second issue I witnessed was voters who were either sent to the wrong polling place or went to the polling place where they have always voted, and told that they were supposed to vote at College Park, only to find out that they were actually supposed to vote at yet another polling place.
- j. Many of these people said that they went to a church where they always voted and it was closed. There were no signs redirecting them. They looked up the nearest polling location, which was College Park, and went there.
- k. When they arrived at College Park they were told that they needed to go to another place. At the beginning, before 3pm, the polling manager was urging people to go to the other polling place rather than voting provisionally because he knew, this way, their vote would more easily be counted.
- l. If they could not, he of course let them vote provisionally. As it got later in the day, there was a slew of people coming in with this problem they would not have had time to get to the other polling location.
- m. Some of these people had taken taxis or buses and it would have been difficult to get to another location. They voted provisionally. It seemed like these people never got the notice that their polling location changed because there were so many people with the same problem. Over 40 provisional ballots were cast at College Park, more than the polling manager had ever witnessed.

- n. The Poll Manager and Poll Workers at the College Park polling station were very hardworking and thorough. Mr. Ken Oliver, the Polling Manager, bent over backwards to help every individual in all of the situations above.
- o. The only problem with the 9 voting machines was that one did not have the privacy shield delivered and could not be used until it arrived. Mr. Oliver made sure that that was ordered right away and it arrived no more than two hours into the voting day.
- p. The Express Polling machines had ongoing problems with losing connectivity and needed to be rebooted several times during the day. Mr. Oliver was hands on in fixing these machines.
- q. At some times, there was only one machine working, at other times there were two working. The third machine was blinking in and out for most of the day. At some times this did slow down the line, but nobody in line left as a result. I think the line was about thirty minutes for a good portion of the day and, at times, it was 45-60 minutes long.

Also, with just one voting area for provisional voters, at the end of the evening when so many provisional ballots needed to be completed, there was a wait of up to six people at a time for the provisional voting "booth".

- r. Luckily, everyone hung in there and waited their turn. I did not notice anybody leaving due to the wait.
 - s. The polling station team was very professional and thorough, and very welcoming and helpful to me and my fellow Poll Watcher, Katy Guerin. They were very helpful to all of the voters and, in my opinion, went above and beyond their duties. It was a pleasure working with Mr. Oliver, a great problem solver, and his team.
4. I give this Declaration freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
 5. I understand that in giving this Declaration, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.
 6. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746
AND/OR
SWORN STATEMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH GEORGIA LAW

1. My name is Cassandra Hollis. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. My mother's name is Tommie Hollis. She is over eighteen years of age.
3. My mother and I are both residents of Fulton County in Georgia and our residence address is [REDACTED] Atlanta Georgia [REDACTED]
4. During the period of September and October, 2018 my mother was in recovery from a respiratory illness and did not leave our home, except to attend a small number of doctor's appointments, until I took her to vote early on October 31, 2018.
5. I took my mother to the C.T. Martin Natatorium, formerly Adamsville Recreation Center, on Martin Luther King, Jr. Drive, in Atlanta, Fulton County, Georgia on October 31, 2018.
6. When we arrived we were both planning to vote.
7. We both checked in with a poll worker in front of a computer and each handed the poll worker our identification.
8. I signed a voting form and went to the next station to get my ballot.
9. My mom was told by the poll worker that she had voted absentee in person at that same location, C. T. Martin Natatorium, on October 16, 2018.

10. My mom responded and told the poll worker “that was not true.” I also said “that is not possible.”
11. The poll worker said that is what it says here and I told her that is not possible.
12. The poll worker got up and went to speak with a gentleman I later learned was Phillip Francis.
13. I went over to where the poll worker and Mr. Francis were talking and again told them both that my mother did not vote on October 16th. He again said that is what it says here and I told him that was impossible because she was at home recuperating and I was at work and I drive her to where she needs to go.
14. Mr. Francis said it is on record that she voted absentee ballot in person on October 16th at the same location, C.T. Martin Natatorium. I asked “who can we call?” My mom had now walked over to where we were talking and heard this exchange.
15. My mom, as a former poll worker from many years ago, said “call downtown.” Mr. Francis’ response was “see, your mom knows who to call.”
16. I asked Mr. Francis to call the election board. I then suggested to my mom that she have a seat while we try and work through this confusion.

17. Mr. Francis did call downtown and spoke to someone for a while. I only heard Mr. Francis' side of the conversation. It appeared to me he was being told nothing could be done. I then asked Mr. Francis to let me speak to the person on the call.
18. Mr. Francis handed me the phone. I introduced myself as Ms. Tommie Hollis' daughter and told the man on the other end of the phone that it was impossible for my mom to have completed an absentee ballot in person on October 16th for the reasons I have already described above.
19. The man on the phone said there is nothing that can be done because it shows she has already voted. I then said it was not she, so should I call the police since she had not voted on October 16th?
20. During this period I sent an email to Info@Georgiademocrat.org describing what was taking place. That email is dated October 31, 2018 at 3:14 pm EST.
21. The man I was talking to on the phone asked me to give the phone back to Mr. Francis. The two of them spoke a few more minutes.
22. While Mr. Francis was still on the phone, I then called another contact of mine and asked what could be done and also asked him to contact someone about what was taking place with my mom at the voting location.

23. I then went and checked on my mom and sat with her. My friend then contacted me again and mentioned provisional voting.
24. I then went back to Mr. Francis and asked him if my mom could vote a provisional ballot.
25. Mr. Francis said yes and said “that is what I was going to suggest, that she vote provisionally while we figure out what happened.”
26. Mr. Francis then picked up a stack of files off the floor. The first page in the stack had the date of October 16th on it. There were two additional similar looking stacks of paper on the floor, on which I could also see the October 16th date.
27. Mr. Francis looked through at least two of those stacks.
28. While looking through those stacks, Mr. Francis said to me “it was very hectic here on October 15th and 16th. The machines were down, there were hundreds of people here. There was a lot of media here.” He specifically mentioned the New York Times being present.
29. Mr. Francis indicated that maybe there was a mistake made in the midst of all of the chaos.
30. Mr. Francis then said, “Let’s go ahead with the provisional ballot.”
31. I guided my mom back to the table where she was going to vote. Mr. Francis was already seated at the same table. Mr. Francis then brought the provisional ballot, a folder to put it in and an orange bag to put it in when she was finished.

32. My mom then sat at the table and completed her provisional ballot.
33. When my mom finished her ballot she placed it in an envelope and placed it in the orange bag. She handed Mr. the clipboard she had been using and he in turn handed her a document entitled Notice to Provisional Voters from Fulton County Department of Registration and Elections Elections Office.
34. Mr. Francis said he was going to continue to research and look through the files he previously looked through and follow up with us.
35. My mom and I then left the polling place.
36. My mom nor I ever heard from Mr. Francis.
37. My mom and I stayed at the polling place for approximately one hour.
38. I made a follow up call to an Elections Protection number. That number gave me a number to the Fulton County Department of Registration and Elections (the "Fulton County Elections Department").
39. On November 1, 2018 I called the Fulton County Elections Department. I reached someone at the Fulton County Elections Department. Before forwarding my call to the supervisor the representative who answered looked in the voter system and reported that she could see that my mom voted on October 16th by absentee ballot. There was no reference to the provisional ballot my mom actually cast.

40. I was then transferred to a supervisor and left a very detailed message. I was not contacted by anyone in response to this message.

41. I made additional calls to the Fulton County Elections Department. After multiple calls, on multiple days between November 1st and November 8th, with no success at reaching anyone, I reached a representative, “Erica,” on the phone.

42. On November 9th I called Fulton County Board of Elections because I was aware of the deadline to clear provisional ballots by November 9th in order for the provisional ballot to be counted.

43. My call on November 9th was answered by a representative who identified herself as “Erica.”

44. I explained to Erica everything that took place at the polling place. Erica first asked why they didn’t just delete the vote?

45. Erica then pulled up my mother’s voting record and informed me that she could see both the October 16th vote (that my mom did not actually cast) and the provisional vote that my mom did actually cast.

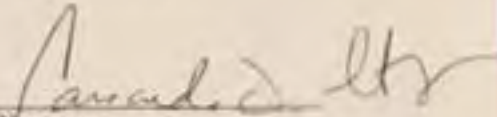

46. I informed Erica that we wanted to cure any deficiency in my mom’s provisional vote to override the vote on October 16th

47. Erica transferred my call to Fulton County Board of Elections supervisor Pam Colman.
48. Before Erica transferred my call she told me Pam may not be available because they were very busy. I explained that I wanted to reach someone because I understood that, that day, Friday, November 9, 2018, by 5:00 pm was when all provisional votes had to be counted.
49. Erica responded that the votes would not be certified until the following Tuesday and mentioned another certification on Wednesday. I asked does that mean my mom's vote could be counted on Monday and Erica said "yes it could be."
50. Pam did not answer my transferred call. I left again a very detailed message. I have never received a response from Pam or any other Fulton County Board of Elections representative.
51. I really am glad I was with my mom to help her navigate the confusion related to her effort to cast her vote. I hate to think about what would have happened if I had not been there to add my assistance to her efforts to vote.
52. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

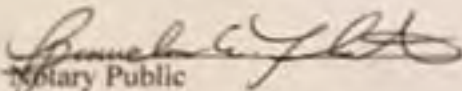

53. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.

3. For the 2018 Georgia General Election, I had trouble casting my ballot and had to vote provisionally. My circumstances are as follow:
 - a. I am a student at Georgia College in Baldwin County. I tried to register to vote at school online, but the website would not accept my application.
 - b. My school faxed my application in for me in time for early voting. I went to vote at the Courthouse on October 18th and I was not registered. They said my registration may have been in the mail they received that day and to come back. I checked online on SOS and it said that I was not registered. They did not offer me a provisional ballot and told me to come back later to check. Nobody followed up.
 - c. So then I went to the regular voting time and they said I wasn't registered. I texted my teacher and made her aware of the situation because she was the one who faxed my paperwork in. She said that she had faxed my papers in and told me to ask for a provisional ballot with a receipt.

- d. I asked the poll worker for a provisional ballot and the poll worker said that I had to be registered in the state to get a provisional ballot. She called the Judge to determine if I get a provisional ballot and the judge approved it. I was then able to vote provisionally.
- e. I thought I had registered in time to cast a regular ballot, but I was forced to vote provisional instead.

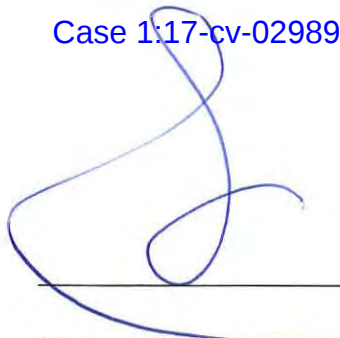

- 4. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
- 5. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.
- 6. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

3. I have a Master's Degree in Special Education and have worked in education for ten years teaching special education and mathematics. I have also worked throughout the south for 15 years with adults who have developmental disabilities.
4. On November 6, 2018, I was a poll watcher at West Hardwick in Baldwin County, Georgia. This was not my first time working at a voting location. For about three years, I worked as a poll worker in Mississippi.
5. On November 6, 2018, I witnessed voters who were turned away because they did not appear on the roll for the West Hardwick precinct. Voters were told to go to their proper polling place even though the voters said this had been their polling place in the past. Some of these voters were quite angry to be sent elsewhere and did not have time to go elsewhere to vote. These voters said that they had to pick up children, or return to work and did not have time to go someplace else to vote. These voters were not offered a provisional ballot.

6. I witnessed voters who said they had submitted address changes but that the roll was not correct and still reflected their prior address, in some cases the database reflected an address where they had not lived for many years.
7. I witnessed several voters who said they had registered to vote at the Department of Driver Services or the public library but who did not appear on the voter rolls and could not vote.
8. I saw only three voters receive provisional ballots: one voter had to request the ballot, and the last one was offered by the Poll Manager. When I spoke with voters about provisionally voting, people were reluctant because they did not want to upset anyone at the precinct where they had just been told they could not vote.
9. When a Probate Judge/Election Official, Todd Blackwell, came to the precinct in the afternoon, I asked him about sending voters to other precincts without offering them the option of voting here and he responded, “no exceptions except during golden hours.”

3. The matters described herein are based on my first-hand, personal knowledge.
4. On Election Day, November 6, 2018, I went to Hillside Presbyterian Church to vote. I have always voted at this location, but on Election Day, I was not permitted to vote using a voting machine. Instead, I was told that I had to cast a provisional ballot because the poll workers could not find my name on the list.
5. After I cast my provisional ballot, I placed my provisional ballot in a concealed envelope and gave the envelope to a poll worker.
6. I did not receive instructions about what to do next or what my rights were, including how to correct a deficiency and how to check whether my ballot was counted.
7. I thought the poll worker was going to tell me if my provisional ballot was going to be counted or not, but I did not receive any additional information.

DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746
AND/OR
SWORN STATEMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH GEORGIA LAW

1. My name is Melanie Manning. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of DeKalb County in Georgia and my residence address is [REDACTED] Dunwoody, GA [REDACTED]
3. On November 6, 2018, I was a Poll Watcher at IGL BAUTISTA NUEVA JERUSALEN, 5300 Williams Rd, Gwinnett, Precinct 123. This was my fifth time working as a Poll Watcher.
4. I arrived at 6:20am with my credentials, introduced myself to the polling site manager, and requested to observe opening procedures from a position out of the way. My request was denied and I was instructed to wait outside with the voters who were already lining up. I did not see Opening Procedures or a zero tape. I entered the Polling site at 7:00am with the voters.
5. I found the process at the polling site to be inefficient, which resulted in long lines all day. The Poll Manager was uncooperative and sometimes contentious with Poll Watchers.
6. I witnessed multiple bottleneck delays which resulted from one of the two Express Poll computers repeatedly freezing up or rebooting. After the third such incident I let the Polling Manager know that I had the ability to report the delays and possibly help her by getting her a third computer delivered. She told me everything was fine and she didn't need my help. She did not explain what was causing the problem.

7. I witnessed multiple accounts of staff sending people away to another polling site in the same county, without offering them the option to cast a provisional vote at that site. Voters waited in line for more than an hour in line before being told that they needed to go elsewhere to vote. After the second such incident, I informed the Polling Manager that this was happening and she instructed the staff to offer voters the option to cast a provisional vote. However, after the staff changed in the afternoon, they reverted back to the original practice of sending voters away without offering provisional voting as an option.
8. The site was equipped with two Express Poll computers and seven voting machines. If one or two voters were not immediately found in the computers, the entire line was held up while poll workers continued to search for them. I witnessed numerous occasions where no voters were voting at all while the line was held up at the Express Poll look-up computers.
9. I spent a lot of time outside the polling place. I noticed many cars pull into the parking lot and leave – presumably because of the length of the line. I also noticed people who walked toward the line and left without voting when they saw how long the line was. In my opinion, the length of the line negatively affected the number of people voting.

10. People were frustrated in the line and confused about the lengthy delays.

Voters in line complained that these long lines were why they rarely vote or hate to vote. I was at the very end of the line, checking registration status and verifying voters' polling locations during the second half of the day.

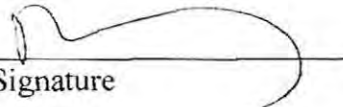

11. Every hour, the poll workers stopped all voting and cleared all machines to count votes. They stopped the line, collected numbers from the machines, wrote the total number of people who voted on a sign posted on the wall near the door, and then resumed the voting. The process took between 5-10 minutes every hour, resulting in regularly scheduled downtime with no votes being cast.

12. I spoke with at least five voters who had previously voted at this location, hadn't moved residences, but who were no longer found in the voter rolls. A common thread among them was that the last time they voted was in 2012.

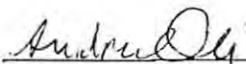

13. I noticed that the site did not have an efficient method for addressing voters who could not be found in the computer. Addressing these issues at one or both of the two Express Poll computers held up the line and left voting machines empty while the line continued to stack up outside. During the day, three people from the Department of Justice came and stayed for a while, though I am not sure why. I stayed at the site until 6:30pm.

14. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
15. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.

4. My individual circumstances are the following: I was not able to vote in this year's election, despite the efforts of myself and my family members for nearly two months to confirm my registration and obtain an absentee ballot.

In September, I requested an absentee ballot, but never received it. Instead, an individual from Richmond County (where I previously resided) contacted me and told me I was listed as deceased and would not be able to vote. My sons became concerned when I told them about the conversation, and they made many phone calls to the elections office. Eventually, on the day of the election, November 6, 2018, a person from the Columbia County elections office confirmed that I had been registered to vote in that county since at least 2015. However, by that time, it was too late to vote absentee, and too late for me to vote in person.

3. For the 2018 Georgia General Election, I was forced to cast a provisional ballot instead of a regular ballot during the early vote period at a Cobb County early vote polling place, after being accused of having a felony on my record when I do not.
 - a. In May 2018, I changed my address online at <https://www.mvp.sos.ga.gov/MVP/mvp.do>. I completed the process and received a voter card which also matches my driver's license.
 - b. On Oct 22, 2018, I went to early vote at Jim R. Miller Park in Cobb and I had my 3 month old child with me. The first poll worker viewed my ID, then I moved to a second poll worker. The second poll worker pulled me out of line and said I could not vote because I had "felon" on my record.
 - c. The second poll worker said I should go to "Downtown Cobb County". Then I was moved to a third poll worker. The third poll worker called the Secretary of State office to determine why I had a felon record when I am not a felon. The Secretary of State's office could not verify to the third poll worker why I was listed as a felon.

- d. The Secretary of State's office told the third poll worker that I should have received a letter earlier, in July, about my status as a felon and being an inactive voter, but I did not receive such a letter.
- e. The third poll worker then offered me a provisional ballot, which I completed. I was at the polling place around two hours and was not given a receipt upon submitting my provisional ballot, but I did receive a paper that stated that I should to go to cobbelections.org or to call their office.
- f. I emailed Cobb County Board of Elections on Nov 9 at 3:59 pm to verify the status of my provisional ballot. In reply on Nov. 9 at 4:10 pm, I received a response from Beau J. Gunn from Cobb County Elections which reads, "This screen reflects what we show in our records per the voter registration system. If your provisional ballot was cast due to an inaccurate record it will be counted. You should receive a confirmation letter in the mail within 7 to 10 business days after the election is certified."

- g. As of 11/13/18, I still do not know the status of my provisional ballot or if my record as a felon was cleared.
 - h. I was prevented from casting a regular ballot at Jim R. Miller Park. Instead, I was forced to cast a provisional ballot after inaccurately being designated a felon in the system.
- 4. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
 - 5. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.
 - 6. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746
AND/OR
SWORN STATEMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH GEORGIA LAW

I am Liza R. Niederwanger. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.

I reside at [REDACTED] Savannah, Georgia, [REDACTED] in Chatham County.

I registered to vote in the November 6, 2018 federal election. As a result of the registration I received a voting card by mail showing the Jewish Educational Alliance, 5111 Abercorn Street, Savannah, Georgia as my voting location.

On November 6, 2018, I went to vote at the Jewish Educational Alliance. I arrived at approximately 6:35 a.m., as I had to care for my children and work that day.

The poll workers were not able to locate my information, even though I had the voting card mentioned above, a valid Georgia drivers license, and a “screenshot” of proof of my voter registration from the Secretary of State’s office.

One of the two poll workers was not able to locate my voter information after almost 55 minutes.

I was then given, without any explanation, a paper ballot, which I completed, and signed and sealed the envelope.

Because this seemed irregular, I called the local Democratic party office in Savannah to report what happened. They informed me that I had a provisional ballot and instructed me to go to the Voter Registration office in Savannah the next day. I did.

Upon my arrival the next day, the Voter Registration office immediately found my information. Again, I remained concerned that my vote would count, so I then went next door to the Board of Elections and explained what I had gone through on Election Day.

After explaining my Election Day ordeal, a supervisor took me into a room where the provisional ballots were located, esp. those from the JEA, where I had voted.

My name was first on the list of those who had received provisional ballots. Next to my name was a code indicating why a provisional ballot was given to me.

The supervisor explained that the code indicated that I did not have identification. I very vocally explained that that code was incorrect as I had presented valid identification.

The supervisor changed the code to reflect that I received a provisional ballot because my registration information could not be located.

I am very concerned because I was never explained what a provisional ballot was, or that I was receiving one, while at the polling location. I was told only that I was receiving a paper ballot.

Had I not taken the initiative, my vote may have not been counted.

I give this Declaration freely, without coercion and without expectation of reward.

I understand that in giving this Declaration, I am not represented by a lawyer, nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway other than as a witness in this litigation.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

SWORN STATEMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH GEORGIA LAW

1. My name is Andrea Oki. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of DeKalb County in Georgia and my residence address is [REDACTED] Dunwoody, GA [REDACTED]
3. I am an experienced attorney and a graduate of Brooklyn Law School and Hollins College.
4. On November 6, 2018, I was a poll watcher at IGL BAUTISTA NUEVA JERUSALEN, 5300 Williams Rd, Gwinnett, Precinct 123.
5. The lines were long all day at this location and wait times were 1-2 hours all day. I witnessed voters leave the line and abandon voting because they ran out of time to wait and observed others who walked up to the line and left when they realized how long the line was.
6. I witnessed voters who were turned away and not permitted to vote when the poll workers could not locate the voter's registration in the Express Poll. Those voters were not given a provisional ballot unless they asked for one. Later in the evening, around 5:00 pm or so poll worker began offering provisional ballots to voters who were on the Express Poll for that location.

7. I observed one woman who was told she was not registered to vote, despite the fact that she had been registered to vote in the past. The last time she voted, she said, was in 2012. She was not permitted to vote and was turned away.
8. On several occasions, I heard a poll worker tell a voter that the address the voter gave was not the same as the address in the computer. The voter was told to put the old address on the oath form and was allowed to vote but was also given a change of address form and told to complete it and mail it in later. I thought this was odd but was glad the voter was able to vote.
9. The poll workers would stop the voting process every hour to do a vote count. They would wait until all seven voting machines were empty and then do the count, put the number of votes on a sign outside, and then begin checking in voters again. They did this until the end of the night when the polls closed at 7:00 pm.
10. I spoke with two voters who were told that the state records showed they had already voted, but they had not. They had not requested an absentee ballot or participated in early voting. They were permitted to complete provisional ballots, however.
11. I saw three people from the Department of Justice come and interview the polling staff. They were at the location for about an hour.

12. I give this Declaration and or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

13. I understand that in giving this Declaration and or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.

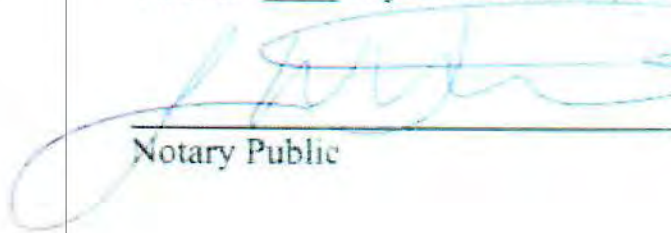

14. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

4. My individual circumstances are the following:

My wife and I went to vote the morning of November 6th.

We've lived at the address above for over 14 years and it has always been our voting address during that time. When I arrived inside of the Whit Davis Elementary School is where our polling place was location, they couldn't find me in the system. Then, they found me listed as living in Atlanta, GA. I told them that I have never lived in Atlanta, neither have I had my address changed. She gave me an address of 836 Laurel Mount Dr. S.W. Atlanta, GA. in Fulton County. She told me that I would have to go to Atlanta to vote. While waiting for them to make a few phone calls, I heard the worker questioning my wife about the street name which we live on. He kept saying [REDACTED] and my wife had to keep repeating, that its [REDACTED]. They finally found her in the system and she was able to vote. I was informed that my license had expired this year on October 16, 2018, which I didn't realize. My license has the above Athens address. I was told I would have to vote a PROVISIONAL BALLOT and I would have to take it to the Board of Elections office, in an envelope they gave me. I found it odd that on my PROVISIONAL BALLOT, I selected democrat and the female who was assisting me said that I could not select either Democrat or Republican on this ballot. She darkens out both parties and mentioned that she “hope no one seen her do that.” No one seems to have experience of how the PROVISIONAL BALLOT works. After leaving the polling location, I went and had my license renewed before proceeding to the Board of Elections office. When I went to the Board of Election Office, I presented my new license and the ballot in the envelope which I had received from the polling location. I asked the clerk, was everything ok and will it count, she replied that I was in there. Later in the day, I called the Georgia Voter Protection Hotline 1(888) 730 – 5816 and I was instructed to give it a couple of days and then check back. I went back Thursday right before lunch time and inquired on the status of my vote. Some of the workers there remembered me from Tuesday. The clerk returned with my ballot and I saw a check mark in the square that indicated that my vote did not count. I questioned her about it and she ripped up the ballot and did another one to show my vote as counted. My wife called and asked when did my address changed and she was told that it was changed in November of 2017, but no one seems to know how it was done.

5. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

STATE OF GEORGIA
COUNTY OF DEKALB

AFFIDAVIT OF MARTHA M. PEARSON

PERSONALLY APPEARED before the undersigned, duly authorized to administer oaths, Martha M. Pearson, who, after being duly sworn, deposes and states as follows:

My name is Martha M. Pearson. I am over the age of 21, suffer no legal disability, and make this Affidavit on the basis of my personal knowledge. I understand that this affidavit will be offered in connection with litigation brought by Stacey Abrams and the Abrams campaign related to the 2018 General Election.

2.

I was admitted to practice law and became a member of the State Bar of Georgia in 1980. I am currently Of Counsel with the law firm of [REDACTED] in Gainesville, Georgia. I was a Partner in the firm from 1990 until 2015.

3.

During the 2018 mid-term election, I worked as a Poll Watcher for the Democratic Party. To prepare for those duties, I participated in the required Poll Watcher Training offered by the Party on-line. I previously served as a Poll Watcher during the 2016 and 2012 Presidential Elections. To prepare for poll watching during those two elections, I participated in in-person training for the 2012 election and a live webinar for the 2016 election.

3.

I received a letter assigning me to Precincts 10i, 10b in Fulton County. The polling location was the West Manor Park Recreation Center, 3240 W. Manor Circle, Atlanta 30311.

4.

On November 6, 2018, I arrived at the West Manor Park Recreation Center at 6:30 a.m. and introduced myself to the Poll Manager, Eric Loving. I also introduced myself to the other poll workers who included his daughter, Jamaleh, and another woman, Greta, who I believe is his wife. There were several other workers whose names I do not recall. I asked Mr. Loving where I could sit during the day to observe. He asked me what my purpose was and I explained that I was there to ensure that every person who was legally entitled to vote could do so. He then pointed me to space between the tables where voters completed the voting certificates and the tables with the Express Poll machines. I set up a chair between those tables. That space remained my base for the entire day although I did walk around the polling station both inside and outside from time to time. Mr. Loving's table which included a space for executing provisional ballots was half way across the room from the voting certificate and Express Poll tables.

5.

As a part of my responsibilities before the polls opened at 7:00 a.m., I asked one of the workers whether they had sufficient provisional ballots on hand. She assured me there were plenty, but they did not expect to need more than four or five. She also said that it was unlikely that they would be counted in any event because it would require the voter to go to the county election office to clear the ballot. I disagreed with that characterization and explained that depending on the reason the provisional ballot was needed, some voters would not need to do so and for those who did, the Party would help the voter get to the office within the allotted time.

6.

Not long before the polls were to open, several of the voting machine stations did not have the written instructions posted. I asked one of the workers whether they had run out of the instructions. She found some and then completed posting them at each station.

7.

The poll opened on time at 7:00 a.m. It was very crowded for the first hour and a half and the parking in the early morning was woefully insufficient. However, for the first couple of hours there were virtually no problems, that is, voters had the proper identification and were in the correct polling location. By mid-morning that began to change. Several voters could not be found as registered voters. Most of the time, the Poll Manager was able to resolve the problem when the poll workers asked him for assistance and in two or three cases where he could not, he offered the voter a provisional ballot.

8.

Throughout the remainder of the day many voters were told they were in the wrong precinct. Most of those voters wanted the address of the correct location and the poll workers wrote it down on the voting certificate for them. It appeared to me in most cases that those voters were headed to the proper location. However, several times during the day when voters were told they were at the wrong location or they could not be located at all in any of the registered voter databases, the voters were either not told at all about the provisional ballot option or they were told it was not likely the ballot would be counted and they would have to go "Pryor Street" in the next three days to make it count.

9.

One voter was told he was in the wrong precinct, that a provisional ballot would not likely be counted and he would have to go to the election office in three days for it to count. When I spoke to him after he left the building, he was extremely upset because he said he had changed his address when he changed his driver's license. He could not understand why he needed to drive to another precinct and he didn't want to complete a provisional ballot because he was told it would not count unless he went to the election office. I told him that if the precinct he was assigned to was in Fulton County, his vote for state wide offices and possibly others would count and it was worth executing a provisional ballot. He finally decided to return and complete the provisional ballot.

10.

On another occasion, I noticed a young male voter slowing completing the voter certificate and needing some assistance from the poll worker. I surmised that he was a first time voter. At the same time, I was watching an interaction at the Express Poll Unit table. The next thing I knew, the young male voter had left. I asked the poll worker why and she told me that he did not have a photo identification. I asked her if she told him about a provisional ballot. She had not, but she claimed that he went home to get the identification "because he lived just around the block." He never returned.

Another voter was quite vocal about how frustrated he and his wife had been trying to get to the proper polling place. They had lived in DeKalb County and moved to Fulton but had changed their voter registration address at the library after they moved. They had voter registration cards that showed their precinct in Fulton County. When they appeared to vote, they were told that the wife was still registered in DeKalb and the husband was at the wrong precinct in Fulton. He was told that the proper precinct was Fulton 10b10i which did not make sense to him because he had not lived in that precinct for years.

Around 6:45 or 6:50 p.m., a voter presented her certificate to the Express Poll Unit poll worker and learned she was in the wrong precinct but there was not sufficient time to get to the proper precinct before the polls closed. She was about to leave when I leaned over to the poll worker and told her to tell the voter about a provisional ballot which she did. The voter expressed concern that the provisional ballot would not count. I told the poll worker to tell her that it most likely would. The poll worker reluctantly did so and then took the certificate to the Poll Manager, her father, and spent several minutes talking to him about it while the voter waited. Finally, the poll worker brought the voter to the Manager and it appeared to me, from a distance, that she was going to execute the provisional ballot. Several minutes went by as the voter and manager talked. During his discussion with the voter, the Manager loudly announced at 7:00 p.m. that the polls were now closed. Several more minutes went by and the poll workers began the process of shutting the machines down. As I was watching the process and getting a vote total from each machine, I saw the voter leave without putting a provisional ballot in the official bag the manager had for that purpose. I followed her out of the area and asked her if she had voted. She told me that she had not because the manager told her it would not likely be counted so she decided it wasn't worth the time. She was unwilling to return to demand the provisional ballot. But she did give me her name and telephone number.

13.

The total number of machine votes cast in the Fulton 10i., 10b precinct was 884. I was told by a poll worker that the total number of certificates executed was 877. Five provisional ballots were cast.

3. The matters described herein are based on my first-hand, personal knowledge.
4. On Election Day, November 6, 2018, at about 8:00 a.m./8:30 a.m., I went to Mary Lin Elementary School (“Mary Lin”), which is in DeKalb County, to vote. I was not permitted to vote using a voting machine (a DRE). Instead, I was told that I had to cast a provisional ballot because the system showed that I was supposed to vote in Morningside, which is in Fulton County.
5. I have not lived in Morningside since 1993, however, when my family and I moved to DeKalb County. I have tried to change my voter registration address several times, but it never works. Every time I show up at Mary Lin to vote, I am told that I’m still supposed to vote in Morningside.
6. My family all votes in Mary Lin with no problems, and they are not required to cast provisional ballots—and they all live in the same house as I do.
7. After I cast my provisional ballot, I put it into an envelope and gave it to a poll worker. She had me put it into a red type of bag.

8. I did not receive a piece of paper explaining what a provisional vote was or what my rights were, including how to correct a deficiency and how to check whether my ballot was counted.

1. My name is Delaney Powers. I am over 21 years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein. I reside at [REDACTED], Woodstock, Georgia located in Cherokee County. I am a disabled veteran and use a service dog in my daily life.
2. On October 17, 2018, in advance of the November 6, 2018 General Election, I went on-line to voter.org to check my registration status and that of my husband, Clifford Rainey, Jr.
3. In looking on voter.org, I saw that we were both registered to vote and that our address was shown as [REDACTED] Woodstock, Georgia. And, it showed our polling location was the Mill Creek Middle School on Arnold Mill Road, in Woodstock.
4. On November 6, Election Day, my husband and I took our eight-year old son and my service dog with us to vote at the Mill Creek Middle School. My husband had taken off a half-day from work for the specific purpose of voting.
5. We arrived at the polling location at about 3:00 p.m. There was not much of a line and we presented our identification to a poll worker. The poll worker checked my husband's registration, told him it was acceptable, and handed him a yellow access card. My husband entered a voting booth and cast his ballot.
6. When I presented my identification, however, I was told that my address on file was 112 Little River Drive and that I could not vote at that location. They told me I had to go to the First Baptist Church of Woodstock in order to be able to vote.
7. I have never lived at 112 Little River Drive. In fact, I had never heard of Little River Drive. I was never offered the opportunity to cast a provisional ballot at the Mill Creek

Middle School and I had no idea that casting such a ballot was an option. I now understand that had I been afforded that opportunity – even if I resided on Little River Drive – I would have been able to vote and my vote would have been counted in all races for which I was eligible to vote (including all of the state-wide races).

8. I was, however, determined to vote in this election so, instead of casting a provisional ballot, my husband, my son, and my dog went to the First Baptist Church – about fifteen minutes away. When we arrived there, we had to wait at least thirty minutes in order for me to vote. By that time, my dog had been working all day and I had to leave him in the car.
9. Ultimately, I was able to cast my vote but I felt like there were impediments at every turn including the inexplicable changing of my address.

1. My name is Bradley Mitchell Resler. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.

2. I am a resident of Dekalb County in Georgia and my residence address is

██████████ Atlanta GA ██████████

3. My individual circumstances are the following:

a. I moved two years ago to DeKalb County (East Lake) from Fulton County (Grant Park). This was the first time I voted in DeKalb. I'm pretty confident I changed my registration because I changed my Driver's License and everything else when I moved two years ago.

My ^{husband.}~~partner~~, with whom I live, votes at the Saint Philip's church polling location in Dekalb county.

b. On election I waited in line at the Saint Phillips polling location about 45 minutes. When I got to the poll worker, they said I was still registered in Fulton County. They told me that I could go ahead and vote in DeKalb on a provisional ballot. They did not give me any instructions on how to follow up on the provisional ballot. They told me that my vote would be counted.

c. Later, my ~~partner~~ called a 1-800 number, which I believe was the Voter Protection Hotline, to see if our vote was counted. He was told that my vote was not counted.

d. I was frustrated because I waited in line all that time and I could have easily gotten in my car and driven ten minutes to go vote in Fulton County if I had known my vote wouldn't count.

4. I give this Declaration freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

3. On election day, November 6, 2018, I served as a Poll Watcher the Warren precinct, 9F. The staff at the polling location was professional and polite. They were trying to do their jobs as best they could.
4. The issue at this location that caught my attention was the number of voters whose names did not appear on the voter rolls. Many of them said that they had lived in the same house and had voted in that precinct for years and yet they were not on the rolls.
5. I know that several voters became very upset when they were told that they could not vote. Some even stormed out.

DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746
AND/OR
SWORN STATEMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH GEORGIA LAW

1. My name is Lisa Schnellinger. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of Pickens County in Georgia, and my residence address is [REDACTED] Big Canoe, Georgia [REDACTED]
3. The matters described herein are based on my first-hand, personal knowledge.
4. On Election Day, November 6, 2018, I served as a Poll Watcher at Anchor Church (precinct 146) in Gwinnett County. I also served as a volunteer on the Voter Protection Hotline on Friday, November 16, 2018, and Monday, November 12, 2018.
5. On Election Day, I arrived at Anchor Church at about 6:40 a.m., and did not leave until about 10:30 p.m.
6. When I arrived at Anchor Church, there was already a line outside the door. The lines were approximately two hours in the morning and evening, and at least ninety minutes through the rest of the day.
7. Although I believe the Anchor Church Poll Manager was well organized, and I personally saw her trying to assist people with voting, I still witnessed a number of voter issues occurring on Election Day.

8. The primary issue, which started as soon as the polls opened, was that people were being turned away and told to vote at the precinct where the voter rolls indicated they were registered (they were given the address of the precinct). When I went outside to speak with them, they all indicated that they had not been given the option of voting provisionally.
9. After I witnessed people being turned away a number of times, I raised the issue with the Poll Manager. She said that it was still early enough for people to go to the correct precinct.
10. But I had spoken with one woman who was turned away and not given a provisional ballot after she had waited in line for more than an hour in the morning. She said she didn't have time to go to the correct precinct to vote because she had to go to work. And when I explained her right to provisionally vote, she said she didn't have time. She was very frustrated.
11. Later in the morning, a young man was turned away from Anchor Church and told he had to go vote in his precinct. When he was leaving, I asked him if the poll workers had offered him a provisional ballot, and he said, "What's that?" When I explained the process to him, he was incredibly grateful, but he was very determined to go vote at his correct precinct.
12. The very first provisional ballot was not offered until 10 a.m., because the voter refused to go to her old precinct. She had changed her address online two months ago and had even received a text message stating that Anchor Church was her new polling station. The registration list nevertheless showed her being registered at her old precinct. She had waited in line for two hours and refused to drive to her previous precinct, which was far away. Only because of her refusal was she offered a provisional ballot.

13. In addition, there were a few people who knew their rights and asked that they be given a provisional ballot, and they were given one. But many people did not know their right to vote provisionally.
14. I did report to the boiler room that people were not being advised about their right to vote provisionally. I'm not sure if my report had an impact, but for one reason or another, around 2 p.m., Anchor Church finally started offering provisional ballots.
15. Once Anchor Church started handing out provisional ballots, I did not see anyone who had cast a provisional ballot receive a piece of paper explaining their rights, including how to correct a deficiency and how to check whether their ballot counted. I wish I had known about, or been trained on, the paper they were supposed to get because I would have asked about it.

JS

16. Despite the number of issues, I was truly inspired by the enormous efforts people were undertaking to try and vote; I became very invested in making sure that their votes counted.
17. When I later volunteered on the Voter Protection Hotline, I learned of more issues at other voting precincts. One story that struck me was a mother who called in on Monday, November 12, 2018. Her daughter, a resident of Fulton County who attends college at Auburn University, had requested an absentee ballot but never received one from Fulton County. On Election Day, the daughter drove all the way from Auburn to Atlanta so that she could vote and then all the way back to Auburn for her 11:30 a.m. class. But her mother was rightfully incensed about the fact that Fulton County's failure to provide the requested absentee ballot forced her daughter to make that drive on Tuesday morning.
18. Other issues people reported to me on the Voter Protection Hotline included (a) a woman from Fulton County who is going to school in Brooklyn requested an absentee ballot but never received it; (b) a woman in Henry County was turned away, told she was registered in Muskogee County, and not offered a provisional ballot; (c) a man in Dougherty County went to Pine Bluff Church to vote in Albany, Georgia, and he said there were only eight voting cards for eight machines, and that people left because it was taking too long to vote.

19. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.
21. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746
AND/OR
SWORN STATEMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH GEORGIA LAW

1. My name is Marcus Soori-Arachi. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am a resident of Gwinnett County in Georgia, and my residence address is [REDACTED] Duluth, GA [REDACTED]
3. I am a U.S. citizen, born in Illinois. I am part white and part Sri Lankan. I obtained an ^{MBA} ~~undergraduate degree~~ ^{MS} and a law degree from Creighton University in Nebraska. I am married, and my wife and I are both currently waiting to find out if we passed the bar exam in California. In the meantime, I drive for Lyft, and I am involved in two start-up companies.
4. I was very committed to voting in the 2018 election, but I faced obstacles at nearly every stage of the process. In the end, my vote was "never received," ^{MS} despite my best efforts. ^{MS}
5. I moved from ^{Rhode Island} ~~Florida~~ to DeKalb County in 2017. I obtained a driver's license while living in DeKalb County. When I received the driver's license, I noticed that my name was misspelled. Instead of Marcus Soori-Arachi, the license had the name "Marcus Soori-Archi." ^{I believe} ^{MS} I went back to obtain a driver's license with the correct name the following week.

6. Leading up to the November 2018 election, I moved from DeKalb County to Gwinnett County. I did not want there to be any issues when I voted, so I almost immediately got a new license with the updated address. I did this online. There was a box to check if you wanted to update your voter registration, so I checked this box. Online records reflect that I was registered to vote on September 27, 2018. However, I never received a voter registration card.

7. Knowing that it was important for me to vote in this election, I separately requested a voter registration card online. I received this one, but when I received it, I immediately noticed that the voter registration card contained my misspelled last name—the name that had briefly been on my DeKalb County license, but that was not on my current license and that I had never used anywhere else. I do not know how or why this name was on my voter registration card.

8. Because it was important for me to vote, I immediately requested a name change on my voter registration card, as I knew that I would not be allowed to vote when my license and my voter registration did not match. I believe this was in early to mid October, the very same day that I received the voter registration card. ~~This~~ was eventually corrected. I never received the corrected voter registration card, but my registered name

9. I requested a mail-in/absentee ballot ~~online~~, ^{and} I never received it. MS

10. Thinking that I would certainly receive a ballot if I went through a third-party website, I then requested a ballot online at www.vote.org. Part of the Vote.org process is that you provide your signature via your smart phone, and the app converts that into a signature to send to government officials. I did this, but when I signed it, I noticed that the box containing the signature was somewhat distorted ^{on the edges, (MS)}. Notably, though, my signature was perfectly legible. There was no distortion of the signature itself.

11. I received the absentee ballot after I requested it via Vote.org. However, with the ballot, there was a notice that the ^{county (MS)} office was not going to accept my ballot because the signatures did not match. The notice instructed me to e-mail them a copy of my driver's license in order for my ballot to count. I sent the e-mail with my driver's license before I took my ballot to the post office ^{the next day. (MS)}.

12. Before I took the ballot to the post office, I made sure to follow all instructions on the ballot and the envelope, because I wanted to be sure that my ballot counted.

13. I wanted to minimize the travel time for the ballot, so I ^{took} my ballot to the main post office in Gwinnett County ^{on Boggs Road. (MS)}. I thought that this would mean that the ballot only could go directly from the main post office to the polling place. I specifically asked the post office employee how many stamps I needed to mail the ballot. I was told I needed two stamps, so I placed two stamps on the ballot and placed it in the outgoing mail close to the self-serve kiosk. At this point, I felt as though I had done everything that was required of me, and I assumed that my vote would be counted.

14. The day after the election, I called the voter suppression hotline because I was very frustrated by the extreme steps that I had to take in order to cast my vote. This is when I learned that, according to the ^{voter} website, my ballot had never been received. I was very upset, given the lengths I had gone to in order to vote.

15. At the advice of the hotline, I called Gwinnett County to find out what happened to my ballot. They told me that they had never received my ballot and that they could not help me.

16. I then asked about the e-mail that I had sent with my driver's license; I wanted to know if they had received it. At first, they said that they could not find the e-mail. I knew that it had been sent successfully though, because I never received an e-mail telling me that I had sent it to the wrong address and because I use a program to ensure that my e-mails are delivered. Finally, after approximately five minutes, they acknowledged receiving the e-mail, but they told me that the e-mail had been "in the wrong area." This was very perplexing to me, as I do not know how an e-mail could be in the “wrong area” or how there are “right” or “wrong” areas of an e-mail inbox.

I asked what was meant by that, and they told me that they ~~could~~^{would} not answer that question but that the e-mail was ~~in~~^{then transferred to} the right area ~~then~~. Nevertheless, no one was ever able to identify where my ballot ended up or why it was not accepted.

17. I really cared about voting, and I felt that there was a new and unexpected obstacle for me to vote at every step of the process. I was very committed to voting, so I did everything I could to jump every hurdle that was put in my path. At the end of the day, though, my vote still was not accepted and counted. I can only imagine what happened to people who are less committed to voting, who are less educated, who are not as savvy with technology as I am, or who simply do not have the time ~~and financial~~^{MS} ~~resources~~ I have. This experience was incredibly frustrating to me, and I am very concerned about ~~what~~^{MS} the implications of this election on our state and country.

18. I give this Declaration and/or Affidavit freely, without coercion, and without any expectation of compensation or other reward.

19. I understand that in giving this Declaration and/or Affidavit, that I am not represented by a lawyer. Nor has any lawyer asked me to be their client or to serve in anyway as anything other than a witness in this litigation.

1. My name is Panessa Stephens. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify to the matters contained herein.
2. I am registered to vote in Cobb County in Georgia at my previous residence address, which is [REDACTED], KENNESAW, GA, [REDACTED]
3. My polling location, as verified on the Secretary of State's "My Voter" page, is FIRST UNITED LUTHERAN CHURCH-BG01, 3481 CAMPUS LOOP RD, KENNESAW, GA, 30144.
4. For the 2018 Georgia General Election, I was forced to cast a provisional ballot instead of a regular ballot at the polling place for my registered address.
 - a. On Election Day, November 6, 2018, I went to my polling place, the First United Lutheran Church, to vote.
 - b. After checking in with poll workers, I was told that I had been given an absentee ballot this election cycle and that I had already voted early or absentee this election cycle.

- c. I am certain that I did not request an absentee ballot and I am certain that I did not vote early. The previous time I requested an absentee ballot was in the 2012 election.
- d. I informed the poll workers that I did not vote and I have not already voted. I was asked to step aside and speak with another poll worker, Rick Martin.
- e. Rick Martin called the elections office and he was told that they had a record I had cast an absentee ballot at Jim Miller Park in Kennesaw, Georgia. Rick informed me that they would be able to tell if the Jim Miller Park ballot was not mine by comparing the signature.
- f. At that time, I was instructed to complete a provisional ballot instead of a regular ballot. I called the Cobb County Elections Office and told them I wanted my ballot at the Lutheran Church to count as the official ballot. They notified me that they had made the change and would count the Lutheran Church in-person ballot.
- g. As of 11/12/2018, on the Secretary of State's "My Voter" page, my vote is still shown as being cast absentee/early on 10/25/2018, which did not happen.
