MINUTE TEXT: The Court addressed the status of the case, Plaintiffs request for additional discovery related to DREs, GEMS, and the voter registration database and software, and the State Defendants Motion for Clarification of the preliminary injunction Order. The Curling Plaintiffs are permitted to file by Friday, August 30, a notice/status report to: (1) update the court on the findings from the GEMS database examination conducted by Dr. Halderman to date, (2) identify specifically the additional aspects of the electronic voting system hardware/software Plaintiffs seek to have examined by Dr. Halderman, and (3) information regarding the statistical sample size of DREs and precinct dispersion, etc. proposed for examination (to the extent such information exists and has been undertaken by the statistician experts). Defendants shall have through Friday, September 6, 2019 to file their Response. Having been provided with updated information regarding the States intention to continue using the Enet software in coordination with the new Dominion EPoll voting system during the phone conference, the Court may seek additional written clarification from the State Defendants and will itself provide supplemental written clarification regarding the relief ordered in section 5 on page 150 of the preliminary injunction Order in light of the information provided by Defendants.
