CURLING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiffs Donna Curling, Donna Price, and Jeffrey Schoenberg (the “Curling Plaintiffs”) move this Court to grant a preliminary injunction prohibiting Defendants in any future election, from using any system or devices for voting, including the Dominion ballot-marking device (“BMD”)-based system, that does not use hand-marked paper ballots as the primary method of recording the elector’s votes. Curling Plaintiffs further move for additional relief related to the implementation of the hand-marked paper ballot system and pre-certification, post-election, manual tabulation audits.

In connection with the foregoing requested relief, Curling Plaintiffs request this Court to order Defendants (1) to conduct elections using hand-marked paper ballots as the primary method of recording the elector's votes, as permitted by Georgia law, (2) to make available at each polling place at least one electronic or mechanical BMD that is in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Help America Vote Act, and (3) to provide a minimum of one ballot scanner at each polling place for casting, tabulation, and secure storage of voted paper ballots.

Further, and in connection with the foregoing requested relief, Curling Plaintiffs request this Court order the Defendants to file, within 5 days of the entry of the Court's Order, a plan providing specific steps the Defendants intend to take to comply with the terms of the Court's Order and to institute pre-certification, post-election, manual tabulation audits of the paper ballots to verify election results, in sufficient detail for the Court to evaluate its adequacy.

Pursuant to Rule 65(d), Plaintiffs have filed with this Motion a proposed order directed at the persons to be bound thereby, stating the reasons why the order should issue, stating the order's terms specifically, and describing the acts restrained and required.

Pursuant to Rule 7.1(A) of the Local Rules of the Northern District of Georgia, and Part III (a) of this Court's Standing Order, Plaintiffs have filed herewith a brief citing legal authorities supporting the motion and the facts relied upon. Attached to the brief are declarations from the following:

2. Donna Curling
3. Donna Price
4. Jeffrey Schoenberg
